POLICY ON IDENTIFICATION OF GROUP COMPANIES, MATERIAL CREDITORS AND MATERIAL LITIGATIONS

INTRODUCTION

This Policy has been formulated pursuant to the disclosure requirements under Schedule VI of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2018, as amended ("SEBI ICDR Regulations"), in connection with the proposed SME Initial Public Offering of the Company. The Policy aims to ensure adequate, accurate and not excessive disclosures, while safeguarding the interests of the Company and its Promoters.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this Policy is to identify:

- material group companies of the Company;
 - material outstanding litigations involving the Company and its Relevant Parties; and
 - material creditors of the Company,
- for disclosure in the Offer Documents.

APPLICABILITY

This Policy shall apply to disclosures made in the Draft Red Herring Prospectus, Red Herring Prospectus and Prospectus ("Issue Documents") filed in connection with the proposed SME IPO.

IDENTIFICATION OF GROUP COMPANIES

In accordance with Regulation 2(1)(t) of the SEBI ICDR Regulations, Group Companies shall include companies (other than promoters and subsidiaries) with which the Company has had related party transactions during the period covered by the Restated Financial Statements and such other companies as may be considered material by the Board.

Provided that promoter group companies shall be classified as Group Companies only where the Board determines that transactions with such entities are recurring, material, and have a bearing on the business, operations or reputation of the Company. The Board may exclude any promoter group company where transactions are non-recurring, at arm's length and not material.

IDENTIFICATION OF MATERIAL LITIGATION

The following litigations shall be disclosed in the Issue Documents:

- all criminal proceedings involving the Company, its Promoters, Directors and Subsidiaries;SSS
- all actions by regulatory or statutory authorities;
- disciplinary actions by SEBI or stock exchanges during the last five financial years.

Other litigations shall be considered material if the value or expected impact exceeds the thresholds prescribed under the SEBI ICDR Regulations or where such litigation has a bearing on the business, operations, prospects or reputation of the Company.

Litigations against Promoters by any ministry, government department or statutory authority shall be disclosed only if material in nature and having a bearing on the business, operations or reputation of the Company.

Multiple unrelated litigations shall not be aggregated unless arising from the same cause of action or regulatory proceeding.

IDENTIFICATION OF MATERIAL CREDITORS

Creditors shall be considered material if the outstanding dues to any single creditor exceed five percent (5%) of the outstanding trade payables of the Company for the relevant financial period, in accordance with SEBI ICDR Regulations.

BOARD DISCRETION AND SAFE HARBOUR

Any determination of materiality made by the Board under this Policy shall be final for the purpose of disclosures in the Issue Documents. Promoters and Directors shall be entitled to rely on disclosures finalized pursuant to this Policy and approved by the Board.

AMENDMENT

This Policy may be amended by the Board of Directors from time to time to align with changes in law or regulations.

DISCLOSURE OF POLICY

This Policy shall be disclosed in the Offer Documents and hosted on the website of the Company.
